WHEREAS, the Community Support Program (CSP) is a program of the Armed Forces of the Philippines (AFP) Development Support and Security Plan (DSSP) dubbed as "Kapayapaan", which is a multi-stakeholder and community-based peace and development effort geared towards establishing and protecting a conflict-affected community with the aim of identifying issues of the communities and introduce developmental interventions to resolve these issues that the community itself identified, but has limited resources in addressing issues and gaps;

WHEREAS, the Retooled Community Support Program (RCSP) was formulated in order to strengthen the CSP initiatives of the military and making the effort Local Government Units (LGU) driven tasking the Local Chief Executives (LCEs) to be champions of the RCSP through their programs, projects, and activities (PPAs) that are directed towards institutionalizing sustainable peace and development;
